New products & further developments

As its origin from a holy chestnut tree in Andalusia suggests, Santo Chestnut is an elegant and balanced decor, which impresses with its modesty. Both in light and dark colourations, the design brings with it an expressive play of colour and invites you to stay a while.

Santo Chestnut

In the last newsletter, we showed our new decor Aurum as a forward-looking counterpole to the prevailing rusticity. The lightness, calmness and harmony of the design are completed with a super-soft and matte surface with a gloss level of less than three. Stylish designer furniture can be created when the material mix is combined with our Terra Mater black.

With our Grand Canyon Oak, we add detailed accents in terms of look and feel in order to achieve a high level of rusticity and a naturalistic feel.

Did you know?

We now print both of our decors Solid Oak and Larch not only in the classic portrait format but also in a modern landscape format.

We would like to thank you...
